

FÖ0430 Research methods – Master level distance course

Course code:

FÖ0430

Application code: SLU-10151

Course Period: 2022-08-29 - 2023-01-15

This is a self-paced asynchronous distance course, intended for student who cannot attend the classroom-based methods course, FÖ0446, that is offered in the Spring.

The course begins on August 29, and all accepted students will receive an invitation to join the Canvas course site, which will be the teaching and communication platform for the course, and includes a full study guide with assignments for examination.

The only other pre-scheduled date is September 12, which is the deadline to confirm course participation and submit an individually planned course schedule, with completion on or before Jan. 15, 2023.
