

Schedule People & Environment LK0382

(updated 2023.10.02)

This is a full time course. Non-scheduled time is to be used for reading the literature and for working on your individual project.

Mandatory scheduled events to attend are marked with an *.

It's of course also mandatory to participate in group project work, in accordance with how the group decides to organise the work.

The course has an online Zoom room used for supervision with Caroline and for online lectures unless another link is specified. The link and password for the Zoom room will be included in the final schedule posted on CANVAS at course start.
