

Literature (updated 02.09.2021)

People and Environment, LK0382, 2 nov 2021 – 16 jan 2022.

The course literature consists of selected chapters from textbooks and additional material in the form of scientific journal articles, and reports. Below is a list of all the literature used, as well as information of how and where you can find it.

Preferably, don't wait until the course starts to get hold of the literature.

In the end of this document you also find information on when during the course the different texts are to be read. Each theme has a literature seminar (for final dates and time see the schedule), in which you should be prepared to discuss and work further with the texts.

The following literature is mandatory to read in the course.
