

Schedule People & Environment LK0382 (updated 2021.10.11)

This is a full time course. Non-scheduled time is to be used for reading the literature and for working on your individual project.

Mandatory scheduled events to attend are marked with an *.

It's of course also mandatory to participate in group project work, in accordance with how the group decides to organise the work.

A final schedule, with rooms and links to the events that will be over Zoom, will be posted in the CANVAS course room closer to the start of the course.
