

MP0002 Landscape Analysis for People and Environment Studies

Overview schedule 2023

Course period: January 16th -June 4th 2023, Pace: 50%

The course is given as a distance course with three mandatory meetings on-line and scheduled time for field work at an individual project place. Two optional meetings are offered for inspirational lectures, group supervision and discussions about the course assignments.

Please note that you have to attend the first course meeting to be able to take the course.

In between the course meetings, you are welcome to contact the course leaders either by phone or by e-mail for guidance in relation to the course and the assignments.

Course leaders:

Anna Bengtsson

phone: 0046 40 415170

e-mail: anna.bengtsson@slu.se

Helene Landin

phone: 0046 40 415508

e-mail: helene.landin@slu.se

- Hand in: Reading log submit your reflection by January 23 on Canvas and comment on at least three other students' posts by February 6
- Meeting 1 January 25-27:
Orientation and finding a topic to focus in the field of outdoor environment in people environment studies.
- Hand in: Individual exercise - Study visit February 13 submit your five slide presentation (PDF format) at Canvas
- Thursday February 16th Optional meeting 9:00-12.00
- Hand in of Part 1: March 10, submit your document as a Pdf at Canvas
- Meeting 2 March 13-15:
Describing tools for use in landscape analysis in people environment studies.
Note: Prepare presentations on drafts for part 2 and 3 (individual) + student lecture (group)
- Hand in of individual drafts + group lecture: March 15: Submit your documents (PDF format) at Canvas
- Hand in of Part 2: April 11: Submit your document (PDF format) at Canvas
- Friday April 14th Optional meeting 9:00-12.00
- Individual fieldwork at place of own choice, April 19-21:
Testing tools for use in landscape analysis in people environment studies.
Note: Feel free to choose other dates if it suits your project better.
- Hand in of Part 3: May 16: Submit your document (PDF format) at Canvas
- Meeting 3 May 29-31:
Presenting landscape analyses in people environment studies.
Note: Prepare Oral presentations and constructive reflections (Part 4).
- Hand in part 4: May 31: Submit your final presentation (PDF format) at Canvas
- Time to complete eventual remaining of assignments by June 4th
- Feedback from course leaders by end of June

To do before the first meeting

- Introduce yourself to everyone in the course on Canvas!
- Start reading the assignment instructions and the course literature to get an introduction to the field. Think about possible topics to focus on.
- Hand in your reading log reflection by January 23rd.
- Take a look at this page with specific information about library service for distance students: For distance students | Externwebben \(slu.se\)
- Install Zoom and get acquainted with the tool: Zoom | Studentwebben \(slu.se\)

As soon as you have registered to the course you can reach Canvas (the SLU learning platform) at: <https://student.slu.se/studier/utbildningssystem/canvas-login/> There you will find a more detailed schedule, the course instructions and other information about the course.

For issues on course administration contact: Desiree.Mattsson@slu.se phone# 0046 40 415304