

MP0002 Landscape Analysis for People and Environment Studies Overview schedule 2024

Course period: January 15th -June 2nd 2024, Pace: 50%

Zoom Classroom:
Passcode:

The course is given as a distance course with three mandatory meetings on-line and scheduled time for field work at an individual project place. Three optional meetings are offered for inspirational lectures, group supervision and discussions about the course assignments.

Please note that you have to attend the first course meeting to be able to take the course.

In between the course meetings, you are welcome to contact the course leaders either by phone or by e-mail for guidance in relation to the course and the assignments.

Course leaders:

Anna Bengtsson

phone: 0046 40 415170

e-mail: anna.bengtsson@slu.se

Helene Landin

phone: 0046 40 415508

e-mail: helene.landin@slu.se

Disposition of course meetings and submissions

- Hand in: Reading log submit your reflection by January 22 on Canvas
-

Meeting 1 January 24-26th:

Orientation and finding a topic to focus in the field of outdoor environment in people environment studies.

Wednesday January 24

13.00-14.15 Course introduction, Anna Bengtsson and Helene Landin

14.30-16.00 Seminar: From topic to landscape analysis and introduction to the individual exercise based on the seminar, Anna Bengtsson and Helene Landin

Thursday January 25

8.15-10.15 Lecture: Outdoor environment in people environment studies, Caroline Hägerhäll

10.30-12.00 Lecture: Urban sprawl & the urban-rural divide, Anders Larsson

LUNCH

13.00-14.00 Lecture: Biodiversity and landscape analysis, Mats Gyllin

14.00-17.00 Group assignment: Preparing student lectures on tools for use in people environment studies. See course instructions.

Friday January 26

8.00-9.00 Lecture: Landscape analysis in relation to older persons in need of care: The semantic environmental description, Anna Bengtsson

9.15-10.30 Lecture: Perceived safety and fear in relation to green spaces, Märit Jansson

10.45-12.00 Lecture: Outdoor environment for children, Märit Jansson

LUNCH

13.00-14.00 Lecture: An example of the course assignment – Christopher Staudinger

14.15-14.45 Time for students questions regarding the course and the course assignments

14.45-17.00 Group assignment: Preparing student lectures on tools for use in people environment studies. See course instructions.

-
- Hand in: Individual exercise - Study visit February 12 submit your five slide presentation (PDF format) at Canvas

Optional meeting                      Friday February 16th                      9:00-12.00

9.00-10.00 Guest lecturer: Silviya Korpilo, University of Helsinki
Lecture: "Using multisensory methods and novel technologies for studying nature exposure in and through place"

10.00-12.00 Q&A-session + discussions about the course assignments

- Hand in of Part 1: March 10, submit your document as a Pdf at Canvas

---

Meeting 2 March 11-13th:

Describing tools for use in landscape analysis in people environment studies.

Prepare presentations on drafts for part 2 and 3 (individual) + student lecture (group)

Monday March 11

8.15-10.00 Lecture: Landscape, people and sustainability, Ingrid Sarlöv Herlin

10.30-12.00 Seminar: "5-slides" presentations of study visits

LUNCH

- 13.00-14.00 Lecture: The Inaccessible nature of accessible nature, Ulrika K. Stigsdotter
- 14.15-17.00 Group assignment: Preparing student lectures on tools for use in people environment studies. See course instructions.

Tuesday March 12

- 8.30-10.00 Lecture: Health promoting outdoor environments for different user groups, Helle Nebelong
- 10.15-11.30 Lecture: Perceived sensory dimensions, Jonathan Stoltz

LUNCH

- 12.30-14.45 Group assignment: Presentations of student lectures on tools for use in people environment studies.
- 15.00-17.00 Group work and seminar – Planning part 2 and 3. Be prepared to share your five minutes.

Wednesday March 13

- 8.30-12.30 Group work and seminar – Planning part 2 and 3. Be prepared to share your five minutes.

---

Optional meeting Tuesday March 19th

- 9.00-10.00 Lecture: Brisa, an on-going real-life project, Cecilia Karlsson and Emma Ljungberg (possibility to meet fellow students after lecture 10-12)

- Hand in of individual drafts + group lecture: March 13: Submit your documents (PDF format) at Canvas
- Reflections on Reading log comment on at least three other students' posts by April 2nd
- Hand in of Part 2: April 9: Submit your document (PDF format) at Canvas

---

Optional meeting

Wednesday April 10th

- 9.00-9.45 Guest lecturer: Anna Herod, University of Agriculture in Kraków, Poland
Lecture: Meaning of the garden: the perception and use of green spaces among older adults
- 10.00-12.00 Q&A-session + discussions about the course assignments

Individual fieldwork at place of own choice, April 17-19:

Testing tools for use in landscape analysis in people environment studies.

Note: Feel free to choose other dates if it suits your project better.

---

- Hand in of Part 3: May 16: Submit your document (PDF format) at Canvas
-

Meeting 3 May 27-29:

Presenting landscape analyses in people environment studies.

Note: Prepare Oral presentations and constructive reflections (Part 4).

Monday May 27 (Zoom)

8.30-17.00 Individual presentations and oppositions of the course assignment.
Course evaluation and time for questions.

Tuesday May 28 (Zoom)

8.30-17.00 Individual presentations and oppositions of the course assignment.
Course evaluation and time for questions.

Wednesday May 29 Campus Alnarp; The Rehab Garden (possibility to listen on Zoom)

8.30-17.00 Individual presentations and oppositions of the course assignment, IRL
Course evaluation and time for questions.

---

- Hand in part 4: May 29th: Submit your final presentation (PDF format) at Canvas
  - Time to complete eventual remaining of assignments by June 2th
Feedback from course leaders by end of June
-

WELCOME TO ATTEND OUR OPEN CAMPUS ALNARP DAYS IN MAY!

Book (29th see above) May 30th-31st!

On Thursday there will be final examinations at the OHW program (possible to join on Zoom), get together activities and dinner and on Friday the anual SLU-thesis day.

Hope to meet you in person ☺